Michael Bryant and Joseph Crumley are certified trial specialists, a small minority of licensed attorneys in Minnesota. This expertise—and their vast experience in court—means they have the skill, strategy and know-how to bring cases successfully to trial. Kristina Borgen and Bryant guide clients through the criminal justice system and tenaciously defend their rights. For two consecutive years, The National Trial Lawyers named Borgen a Top 40 under 40 Attorney, and she is named to Rising Stars for the first time this year.

The firm has two offices and represents clients across Minnesota. Its lawyers are known for aggressively representing people who are injured in accidents and helping families through the wrongful death of a loved one. They also fiercely advocate for clients facing charges in criminal matters.
